

Altoona Christian Church Covenant

I'm convinced that nothing can separate us from God's love in Christ Jesus our Lord: not death or life, not angels or rulers, not present things or future things, not powers or height or depth, or any other thing that is created. (Romans 8:38-39)

We covenant to love God and to love our neighbor.

We show our love for God by following the teachings of God's son, Jesus Christ. We engage in prayer and study God's word. We serve God with faithful and thankful hearts.

We show our love for one another by practicing forgiveness, listening to understand, and speaking the truth with love (Ephesians 4:15). We build others up, instead of tearing them down. We treat each other with mutual respect and honor our respective boundaries. We work through our differences and disagreements with grace, understanding, and flexibility. We keep our commitments to one another, holding one another accountable to our covenant.

We show love to our neighbor by acting as the hands and feet of Jesus to serve the Body of Christ. We share the celebration of communion with all. We welcome all and accept all, with God's limitless love.
